Spreading their unifying message of magic, luck and friendship since 2002, art collective FriendsWithYou stop in at PK Shop to sign copies of their new book, We Are FriendsWithYou. The collective, which consists of Samuel Borkson and Arturo Sandoval III, create interactive works that call on the viewer to reinvent and reinterpret the lost meaning of spirituality. Similar to artists like Murakami, Arturo Herrera and Yayoi Kusama, FriendsWithYou have developed a post-pop visual language that triggers thoughts of happiness, curiosity and meaningful interaction. Their new brightly colored book explores the duo's artistic journey and features contributions by Pharrell Williams, cult filmmaker Alejandro Jodorowsky, and museum director Peter Doroshenko.
